

Questions

Note: not all of the questions can be answered with this document. Some of your classmates are reading different articles and will share their answers with you at the end of this activity.

1. How are slaves depicted? Give quotes.
2. What are slaves' feelings toward masters and masters' families, according to the articles?
3. What evidence does the author present to prove that slaves feel this way?
4. How are abolitionists depicted?
5. On what grounds is slavery defended? Give exact quotes.
6. How is freedom depicted. . .
 - a. for free blacks in the North:
 - b. for slaveholders: